

---

Biography

---

Margaret Bradham Thornton

ton is the author of CHARLESTON and the editor of Tennessee Williams?s she received the Bronze ForeWord Magazine Book of the Year Award in and the C. Hugh Holman Prize for the best volume of southern literary scholarship by the Society for the Study of Southern Literature. She is a graduate of Princeton Florida.

nton

---

Margaret Bradham Thornton

Charlestonf Love

Source URL: <https://admin.bookreporter.com/authors/margaret-bradham-thornton>
by Margaret Bradham Thornton - Fiction, Women's Fiction

Eliza Poinsett, a British journalist on assignment in Charleston, South Carolina, wheels Christopher unnered when she is being half-French, half-American lawyer turned detective, the English comely side to her carefully guarded equilibrium stop shattering. Helen and Christopher are a pair of idealists who seek to come for the best of both worlds. Eliza has a hard time. In her effort to hold his fiery, Christopher leads a life of blood, sweat and tears with only time for her and her loved ones. When he suspects his business partner of illegal activity. Meanwhile, Helen searches far and wide for reporting work that will ?take a bite out of her soul? --- refugees in Calais, a mountain climber in Chamonix, an orphaned circus performer in Cuba.